So You've Graduated . . . Now What?

High school graduation is a time for important decisions regarding the future. What plans have you made? A job . . . the Armed Forces . . . or will you continue your education so as to be better prepared to meet the future with confidence.

Graduation is an important occasion in everyone's life, but primarily it is a time for making decisions about the future — decisions which could very well affect your entire life.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said: "I urge every girl and boy in the United States to continue as students in school until they have developed their God-given capacities to the full. Only in this way can they hope to make their finest contribution to the strength of the Nation and reach the fulfillment of their own life purposes."

These words have significant meaning at this time of year when thousands of students are graduating from our nation's high schools.

The years of study and education leading to graduation were a period of preparation to help you recognize and meet your responsibilities confidently and capably. All other things considered, the greatest responsibility you now have is yourself — your future and what you intend doing with it.

No matter what opportunities may lie ahead, the future for you depends largely on what you make of it. There is only one sure way to achieve success in business or in society, to achieve financial rewards, or to grow culturally as an individual and that is through the knowledge developed by continuing your education.

Today employers are asking — "What do you know?" They are demanding initiative, efficiency, sound education, and clear thinking.

TENNIS IS BOUND to be the topic when this group gets together. Following the final match of league play these boys and girls posed for the photographer. This marked the first year for organized participation on the junior high level in Chillicothe consisting of four junior high schools. Arrows show Del Prickett (top), Standard Practice Department and Dave Doner (lower), Industrial Relations Division, League Commissioner, and President, Chillicothe Tennis Association, respectively.

Chillicothe Tennis Association

Renewed Interest In Tennis Is Result Of Organized Efforts

Approximately 150 junior high youngsters are reaping the benefits of a tennis program which began earlier this spring.

The program is under the sponsorship of the Chillicothe Tennis Association. This group was organized five years ago to revive tennis interest in Chillicothe and Ross County.

The association, for the past two years, has conducted a tennis clinic for anyone from 8 to 18. The purpose of the clinic was to teach the basic fundamentals of playing tennis. To do the job, a group of young leaders (high school age) were trained by the CTA members as instructors. Attendance at the clinics averaged 175.

This year, the fine showing of the Chillicothe High School Tennis Team can be attributed to the clinics. Last year, for the first time, the high school had a tennis team. This spring the school competed with other members of the Central Ohio League.

Two months ago, the CTA decided to begin a junior high tennis program. This decision resulted in a 4-team league being formed representing the public and parochial junior high schools of Chillicothe.

Western, West Fifth, Mt. Logan, and St. Peters.

What began as an experiment has really proved successful. "This is an experiment," Dave Doner, industrial relations division, CTA president, said in the beginning. "We believe it will work. It is a real challenge to everyone since you will be trying in one month's time to teach children the fundamentals of tennis."

Besides Doner, another officer in the CTA is Henry McComb, plant engineering, who is secretary-treasurer.

The league commissioner is Del Prickett, standard practice department. Larry Schum, operations analysis department, is an adult advisor to St. Peters.

The junior high league completed its schedule on May 24.

With this successful program behind them, the CTA now plans to begin a clinic this month for children 9-15 years of age.
